

Dr. Nicole Uschold-Schmidt

Curriculum vitae

2013 to date

Post-doctoral researcher in Prof. Flor's lab at the University of Regensburg, Germany

2012

PhD („Chronic psychosocial stress and HPA axis functionality in male C57BL/6 mice – a closer look at the adrenal level“)

2009 – 2012

PhD student in Dr. Reber's Chronic Stress Group (Prof. Neumann´s Lab) at the University of Regensburg

2009

MSc (Diplom) in biology at the University of Regensburg (Diploma/Master thesis: “ Effects of chronic psychosocial stress on morphological, histological and physiological parameters of the adrenal gland in male C57BL/6 mice

2006-2009

Graduate studies in biology at the University of Regensburg with focus on Zoology/Neurophysiology, Cellbiology and med. Microbiology

2003-2006

Undergraduate studies in biology at the University of Regensburg, Germany

1982

Born on August 8th in Weiden i. d. Opf., Germany

Awards

2011

Ernst und Berta Scharrer Preis (together with Dr. Stefan Reber)